(a) Where the grant partakes of the nature of an Agrahara inam, the conditions implied by such grant, viz., the keeping up of the Agrahara house and the residence in it of a Brahman fulfilling the objects of the original grant, shall be enforced.

(b) Subject to the above rule, all Inams in enjoyment of grantees' heirs or of alienees claiming by virtue of alienation by grantees or their heirs strictly within the powers expressly conferred by the sannad and to the extent therein expressly laid down, shall be confirmed free.

(c) Inams in the hands of Brahmans holding under an alienation in excess of powers granted, and limits laid down, expressly by the terms of the original grant, shall be confirmed on a quit-rent of one anna for every rupee of assessment.

(d) Such enfranchisement shall carry with it the power to alienate to any Brahman whatever, but not to a non-Brahman.

(e) It shall be within the option of the Inamdars dealt with under rule (a) to enfranchise their inams by the imposition of a quit-rent and extend their powers of alienation as provided for in rules (c) and (d).

(f) Inams in the enjoyment of non-Brahman alienees, when such enjoyment shall be proved to have commenced more than fifty years before the date of these rules, shall be confirmed on half quit-rent, such enfranchisement carrying with it the power to alienate to Brahmans only.
